Tool nr.102 - material

Developed by: inspired by Nancy Dana and further developed by Catholic Education Flanders

Name of the material:

Manual to refine your question

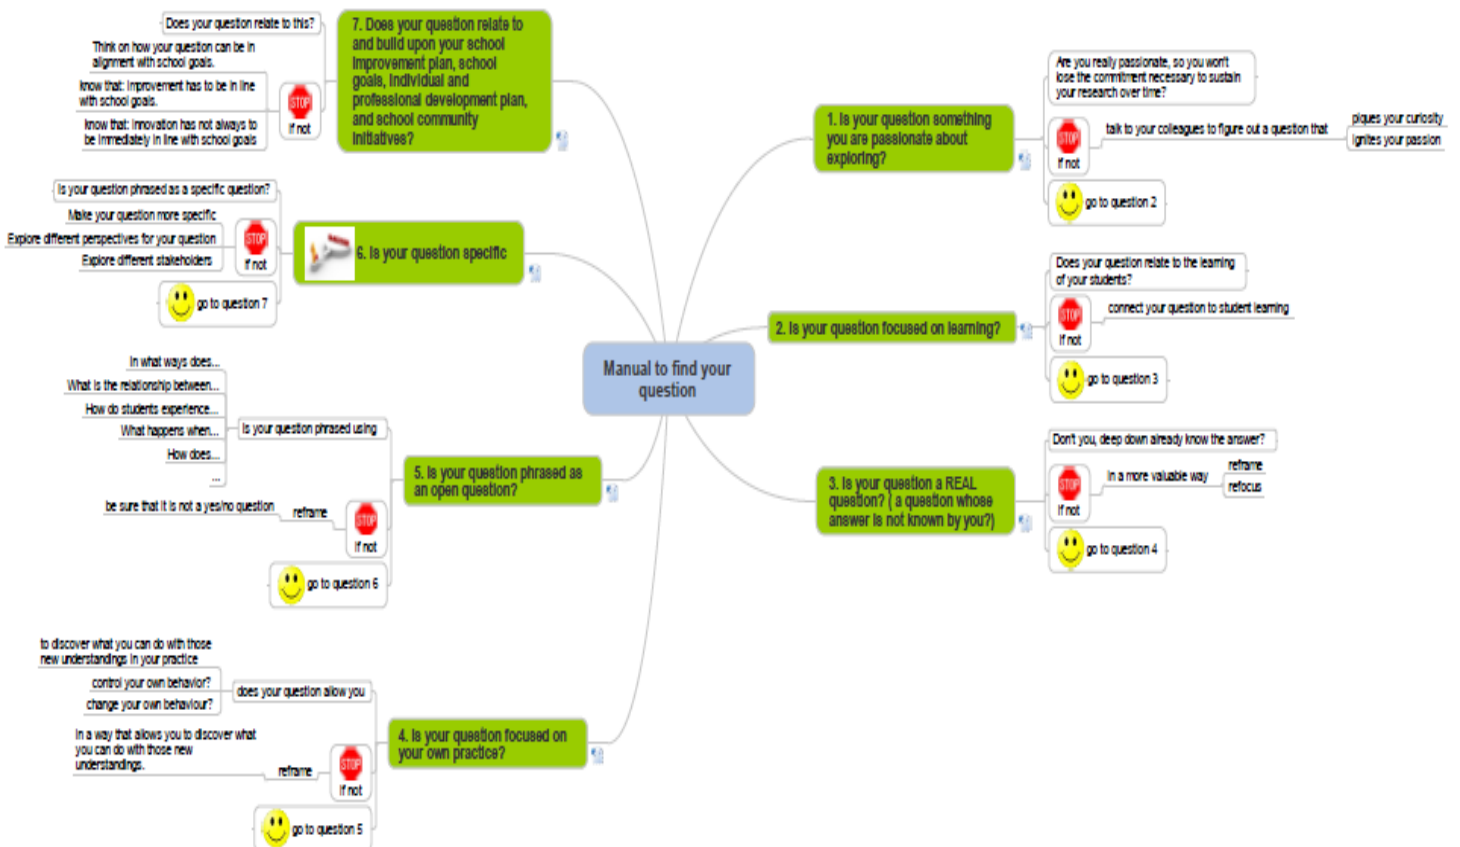

Sources:

Prof. Nancy Dana, University of Florida - <https://www.slideshare.net/jasondeanarnold/wondering-litmus-test>

Purpose of the material:

This material is a litmus test to refine your research question. Participants go through the seven steps to refine their research question. If the answer on the question is yes, participants can go to the next step. If the answer is no, they get suggestions to refine their question in order to get a positive answer.
